JoAnne Hazen, 62, of Aberdeen, passed away Saturday, May 14, 2016, at Swedish Medical Center in Seattle, Wash.

JoAnne was born on April 5, 1954, in Waco, Texas to Loyal Dean and Wanda Faye (McFall) Jamison. She grew up in Aberdeen and graduated from Weatherwax High School in 1972. She went to Grays Harbor Community College, Yakima Valley Community College and graduated from Central Washington University with a bachelor's degree in accounting.

She married Earl "Joe" Hazen in March of 1975. Joe and JoAnne spent their lives together raising a family, living life to the fullest, and loving each other unconditionally for 35 years. They were soulmates. Now that Joanne is in Heaven with God, she is also with Joe, her lifelong partner & love of her life.

JoAnne was the bookkeeper for Price Plus, which later became Top Foods, where she worked until it closed.

She enjoyed reading, scrapbooking, gardening, traveling, & having lunch dates with her best friend, Carol. She was a member of Light & Life Community Church in Hoquiam, where she also served as treasurer. Most of all she loved spending time with her family.

She is preceded in death by her husband Joe, and her parents.

JoAnne is survived by a son, John (Koren) Hazen of Aberdeen; two daughters, Jodie (Brad) Lyons and Jennifer (Clinton) Osina, both of Aberdeen; a brother Jamie (Donna) Jamison of Desert Aire, Wash.; a sister Deborah (Russ) DeFields of Olympia; eight grandchildren and one great-grandson.

A celebration of JoAnne's life will take place on Sunday, May 29, at 4 p.m. at the Light & Life Community Church in Hoquiam.

A message of condolence or of a memory can be sent to the family at www.fernhillfuneral.com

Arrangements are entrusted to Twibell's Fern Hill Funeral Home in Aberdeen.
